"Like father, like sons." Most of the student body has had the opportunity to meet and observe two of his sons, Dave and Bob, either through visits here at school or in the realm of basketball where both excel. All will have to agree that they are the gentleman-athlete exemplar. It couldn't be otherwise for their father represents all that is good. And, thus, we too are beneficiaries of the sound counsel and constructive discipline he has rendered to us these formative four years of our precious young lives. To show our appreciation we, the Class of 1969, make the most logical, intelligent, and pleasant decision of our high school careers—the selection of Mr. Edward J. Boule as dedicatory recipient.

RONALD GRANVILLE, CLASS OF 1966

Amid the peaceful surroundings of Gore Cemetery, Rochdale, Spec. 4 Ronald Granville, USMC, was laid to rest October 12, 1968, with the myriad, dazzling hues of fall foliage providing a background of nature's utmost beauty. It was in appropriate contrast to the violence in which Ron had courageously sacrificed his life in Vietnam. As Fr. Chester Janczukowicz intoned the burial prayers, a solitary leaf wafted through the air and gently settled alongside the coffin. A solemn moment, yes. But those of us who observed that falling leaf had to feel comforted. It was God's symbolic way of paying tribute to one of his heroic, fallen sons. May he rest in peace.

IN MEMORIAM

LAWRENCE R. BRATTAIN

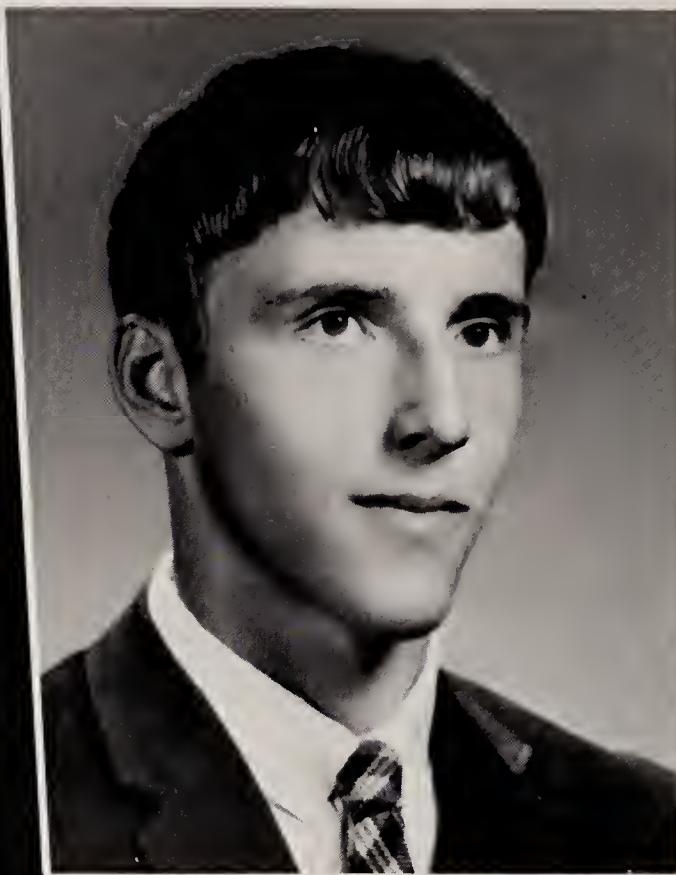

Larry ... or Brat; somebody's baby; classy all-around guy; Miss Frye's unsociable one; Steve McQueen on a motor scooter; always needs a haircut; always with Jimmy and Gary—hunting, hunting what?; a real prowler; everybody loves him, and he loves everybody; a genuine friend who has that mark of excellence.

TERESA P. GORDON

Terri ... to live is to dance and to dance is to live; still Phil; his "leettle French peelow;" Kathy's psychiatrist; ever been razzed?; Rosita in class play; pool shark; local prowler and car thief; Tina's big helper; knows how to tease a Lithuanian; may her falls be few on the dance floor of life; success unlimited to our ballerina extraordinary.

1969 CLASSES OFFICERS

ROBERT M. BOSSE

Bob ... or Cow; the Rice Petrocelli of L.H.S.—can really maneuver deep in the shortstop hole; Dr. Fragonie in class play; seen laughing one moment, then dead serious the next; a great Red Sox, Bruin, Celtic, and Pats fan forever; Mr. Carlomagno's right arm—in the aquarium, that is; UMass or New Hampshire in fall; success assured.

JUDITH E. BERTHIAUME

Jud ... a friend to all; basketball co-captain; softball phenom—tremendous shortstop; like those Grafton games?; body-block artist; most athletic junior; Dave?; Gary?; ever been razzed?; one of Tina's after-prom helpers; gym lover; a pool shark, Peter?; future reads Bridgewater State in fall—success thereafter is inevitable.

1969 MAROON STAFF

Officers

Honorary President

STUDENT COUNCIL

This was the initial year of the LHS Student Council and it was well received by the vast majority of pupils. Advisor Mr. LaPlante steered it along on a sensible, mature course. Rules and regulations governing dress, behavior, etcetera, have been spelled out by council members, who were chosen by their homeroom classmates. Thus, it's only natural that their policies should be binding upon the entire school.

Karen Handley presides at an informal meeting

DEBATING

Thirty years ago Mr. Norm Hamley was an acknowledged brilliant orator-rhetorician on the Worcester high school scene. Therefore, it's incumbent that we should be putting his talents to valuable use. And that's exactly what we're doing. As debating advisor here at school, he has been non-sparing in solidifying on A-1 squad. Let's hope and trust he'll be rewarded with a sleuth of victories in the Swingin' Seventies.

CHINESE CLASS

We should certainly regard ourselves blessed for having a mandarin master like Mr. LaPlante in our midst. With his knowledge of this language, it wouldn't be surprising if we'll be sending ambassadors to the court of Peking. Four students who have become partakers of Mr. LaPlante's oriental fluency are shown at left; namely, Tina Halpin, David Allen, Pat Dronzek, and Linda Desautell.

ARROW STAFF

Advisor Mr. John King has taken up the newspaper reins and reactivated what has been an off-again, on-again type activity here at school the last several years. It is hoped next year that we shall go to print on at least a bi-monthly basis so as to compete favorably with other schools in the area. Too, the sound of the "Award-winning Arrow" has a pleasant ring to it. So, let's get with it, kids. It's your best medium of communicating intimately with the student body.

Head Coach Ed Hippert and Asst. Coach Bob Carney look beyond the '68 season to a brighter tomorrow with Co-Captains Gary Russell and Dennis Burt.

FOOTBALL 1968

Not that we care to pry into Mr. Hippert's selection for the Presidency last November, but we do know that he subscribes to Nixon's philosophy of "Tell it like it is." The 1968 team record of 2-6 was a distinct disappointment. Better things were expected. Hopefully they will come our way next season.

There's no knocking our offensive team either. There were quite a few visits to TD-land. They were made possible by the onrushing front line of Jim King, Dennis Burt, Dave Miller, George Laventure, Gary Russell, Jim Fontaine, and Brian Corley. Rushing through those mammoth holes created was our bulldozer backfield consisting of quarterback Joe Rollins, halfbacks Barney Hennessy and Phil Carlos, and fullback Steve Corley.

1968

Former Coach Vince Lombardi of the Green Bay Packers has stated that you've got to "hate" your opponent. We won't go that far in high school ball but will say that you should "know" your opponent. Next to your family, and your studies comes Saturday's rival in importance. Remember, fellows, a 2-6 record is not worth three months of hard work. Coaches Mr. Hippen and Mr. Carney give their all every day. Will you? Back to Lombardi and his famous quote, "Winning isn't everything. It's the only thing." We'll buy that. C'mon, guys, let's get with it in 1969.

Co-captains Bob Bene and Bob Bisco huddle with Manager Pat Raincz

Oxford will be an opponent next year. Let's go to know them and our other eight rivals. Know them better than they know us, and we may well be on our way to a 9-0 record.

BASKETBALL

We're going to spare the adjectives this year. Why? Because none would be adequate. Like "Brown Derby" Al Smith would say, "Let's take a look at the record." It speaks volumes by itself—a 22-won, 2-lost overall record, the Southern Worcester County League title, the Clark University Larger Schools crown, and a finalist's berth in the District 3 playoffs. It all adds up to EXCELLENCE spelled out by Coach Hippert and his sparkling troupe of players.

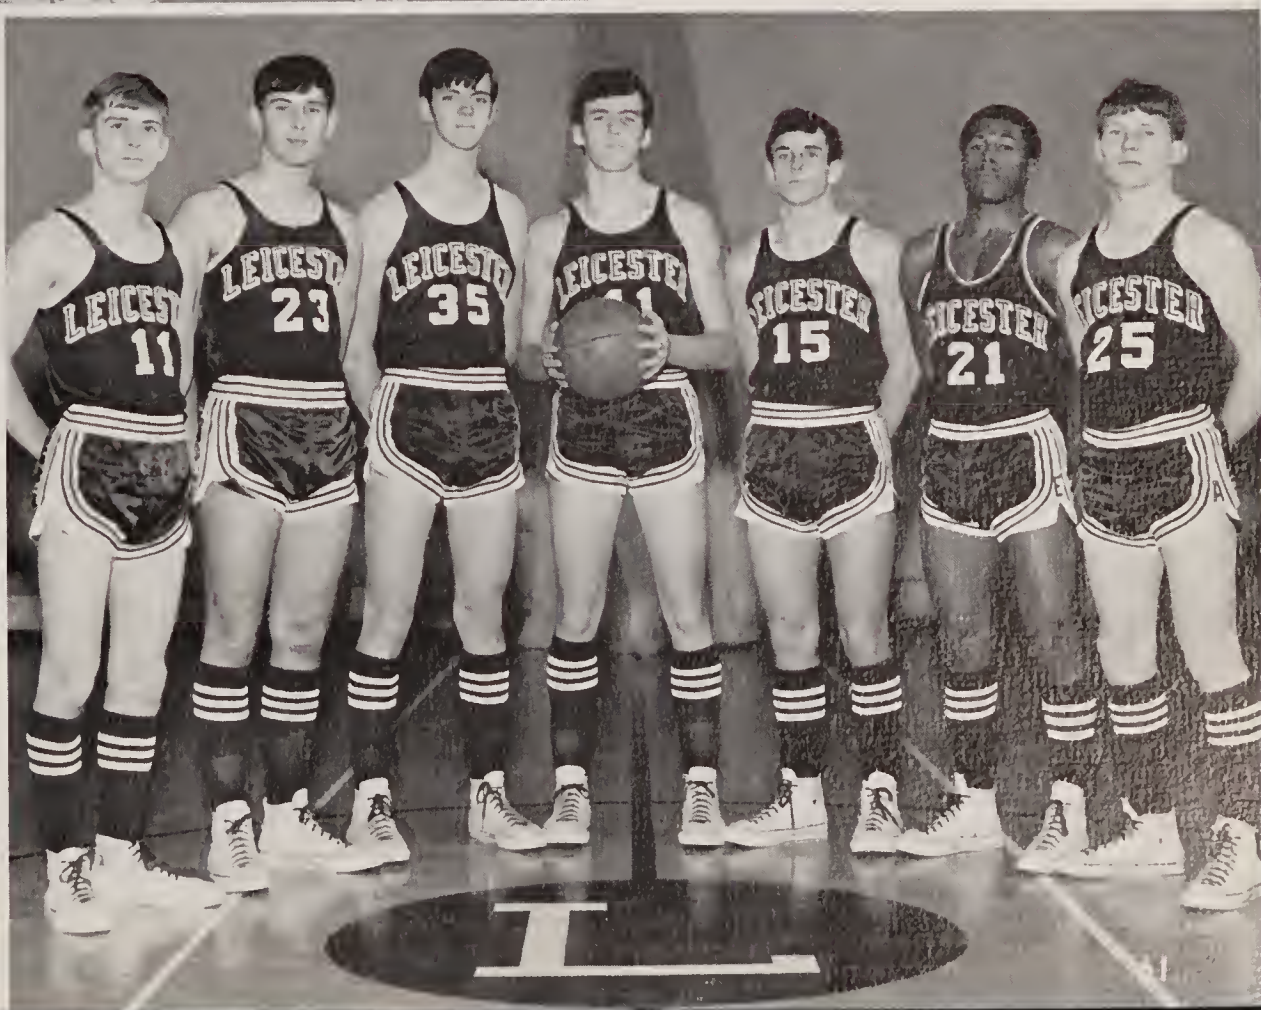

Coach Ed Hippert and Captain Cliff Smith

Until the '69 basketball team arrived on the scene, there's no questioning the fact that the '61 footballers were Leicester's all-time greatest sporting outfit. Now both can share the top rung. The court magicians are shown at left. Front: Steve Londergan, Cliff Smith, Dennis O'Brien, and Phil Carlos. Second row: Bob Bosse, Road Secretary Bob Brooks, and Jim King. Third row: Dennis Burt, Faith Healer George Laventure, Coach Ed Hippert, Spiritual Advisor Leo Murphy, and Brian Corley. Fourth row: Mickey Cooney and Barney Hennessy. Rear: Dave Miller, Richie O'Brien, and Steve Corley.

Two titles, a slot in the District 3 finals, and a 22-2 record. You just can't belabor that point too often. It's an amazing accomplishment and here are the seven chief architects of it: from left, Steve Londergan, Steve Corley, Dennis O'Brien, Jim King, Cliff Smith, Phil Carlos, and Barney Hennessy.

J.V. BASKETBALL

As always Coach Joe Carlomagno floored a club which annually compiles a better than 80 per cent winning average. This edition was no exception as it virtually made a shambles of SWCL competition. But that's only secondary. What's most important is the talent that's being ripened for the rigors of varsity play. And, boy, there's a real harvest for the 1969-70 season. A most appropriate time also when you consider the departure of Smitty, King-o, Obie, Sweet Steve, and Bobo Bosse. Huge voids, to be sure, but we're certain there are enough J.V. players around the corner to fill the gaping holes.

What was stated previously about the 1969 basketball team can also be reiterated for the cheerleaders. Words are superfluous. What they do each year from September to April is like a symphonic orchestration of beauty—flawless, magnificent. And that was the appraisal of the judges who voted them top prize in the David Prouty Tournament this year. It's the most sought-after and cherished crown in Central Mass. cheerleading competition. But that's not the whole story. The kids went to Deerfield and were rewarded with second place in the Frontier Regional Tourney. And at the end of the night Gilda Salminen was named "Miss Cheerleader." What a year!

It's intricate maneuvers like the one shown opposite that have enraptured the fans and captivated the judges. Symmetry is the trademark of these nine girls. From left: Cindy Culver, Sally Earle, Kathy O'Neil, Peggy Mercer, Gilda Salminen, Lianne McCallum, Carol Brown, Kathy McQuoid, and Sherry Brunette.

Continuing the winning cage tradition at LHS, the girls' basketball team ran roughshod over SWCL foes while compiling a championship 12-1 record. First-year coach Kathy Cushing proved she was as knowledgeable as Adolph Rupp in leading this feared juggernaut. "Into each life a little rain must fall" and unfortunately, the downpour came for us in the Sutton Tourney when a squad of Northbridge upstarts derailed us in our bid for the crown. Otherwise, we spent the season on Glory Road. What a feeling!

PHYSICAL FITNESS RECORD-BREAKERS

As you can see from these two pages, records fell like snowflakes in this year's physical fitness competition. Especially does Joe Rollins have us all complaining of tummy-aches after doing 3001 situps - too much! Of course, the envy of every student is Jim Fontaine, the chiseled grad who may well become a future Mr. Universe. He's indestructible. And let's not forget Johnny Huntoon, who is a continuing part of that family dynasty which has dominated this competition since its inception in 1963. This two-page spread serves as a challenge to all students. Become a record-breaker and your picture will appear in next year's annual. A better reason, though, is that a healthy body is conducive to a healthy mind.

REFLECTIONS

The season just completed was nothing less than ultra. A second-place finish to Grafton in the SWCL league followed by a berth in the District 3 playoffs. None of us will ever forget that heartbreaking 4-3 loss to Shrewsbury in the tourney quarter-finals. Freshman Paul Laliberte stood the Colonials on their ears through seven innings before Jack Hurst's liner to left bad-hopped by Brian Corley for a three-run homer that proved decisive. Adversity, yes, but triumph will follow in 1970.

A WELL-DESERVED TRIBUTE TO JOHN CHASSE

The June 30, 1969, issue of the Worcester Telegram may have told it all, but we feel compelled to reiterate. John Chasse is now numbered among the genuine heroes of all wars in which we have engaged. The Silver Star for valor for killing four Viet Cong in night patrol action March 23, and twice the Purple Heart for wounds suffered in action. We all prayerfully hope that Our Lord will guide this outstanding teacher-coach-war hero through the perilous months ahead and return him safely to our midst next February.

TEAM

This year's version of the thinclads wasn't known for its point-making but John Guy's "V" sign heralds a super '70. Right now they look like survivors of Aushwitz, but daily intake of Mapo and membership in the International Health Club will earn for Leicester the team label "Muscleland, U.S.A." Front row, from left: Tom Brennan, Lee Murphy, Rich O'Brien, Ken Largesse, Dennis Burt, Ken Greenhalge,

FIELD SENSATIONS

Low Hurdlers

Pole Vaulters

Broad Jumpers

Shot-putting whiz

Coach Hamley's expertise in the area of field events is common knowledge among buffs in Worcester schoolboy circles. His current problem is that too many of our upperclassmen are shedding their shoes for the feel of that car accelerator. That means getting a job after school, so the two-year training period spent communing with the cinders goes down the drain. Let's assume a posture of perseverance so as indoctrination will lead to fruition in the way of an era to be known as the "Successful Seventies."

TRACK MARVELS

Goal: Summer Olympics, Munich 1972. Think we're kidding? Wait and see. Team leader John Quay has already made plane reservations for the LHS hoofers. We can see it now. The 1500-meter race. Quay jetting it down the straightaway to nip Kipchoge Keino at the wire. And the end of the 26-mile marathon, Jay Doherty thrusting his tummy ahead of the elder John Kelly. Of course, it will be "no contest" with Ken Greenhalge beating some 92-year-old Mexican cripple in the long walk.

GOLF 1969

It's only the third season we've been in operation but already our linksmen have established themselves as the class of Central Mass. Imagine anyone predicting an 8-1-1 record back in 1967. He would have been committed. But that's exactly what happened this spring. Seniors Bob Cleary and Wayne Proctor will enthuse you further. Our congratulations to Coach Ron Bjorklund for his tireless efforts which have now yielded substantial rewards.

CROSS COUNTRY

This was the first year that we had X-Country on an official basis. The turnout was on the skimpy side, but as Coach Norm Hamley intoned, "It's not quantity, but quality that counts." We had that in superabundance as can attest the birds and the bees, along with the squirrels and the chipmunks, whose solitary lives here on the hilly slopes of Leicester were molested each autumn afternoon by these plodding prancers.

Senior speedsters were: Cliff Smith, Dennis O'Brien, and Steve Londergan.

In the gay month of flowers and warm spring breezes, our Junior Prom was held on Friday, May 10, in the Starlight Room in Worcester. The theme was "Try to Remember" and our radiant queen was Judy Rolander, who was encircled by four charming and gay princesses—Gilda Salminen, Sally Earle, Debbie Clapham, and Tina Halpin—who comprised her starry court.

ADAM'S EVENING

Perhaps the saddest news of the year was hearing that Play Director John Sullivan was going into retirement. The press of head departmental duties in English is the reason. Like the miracle of the wine at Cana of Galilee, we'll always remember him for saving his best production till last. Even he admitted it, so that's all the more reason why the cast members should feel genuinely Broadway-boastful. They merited it by their flawless performance.

SENIOR DINNER-DANCE

The social climax of our high school career came June 9 at the Holiday Inn in Worcester. The occasion was the Senior Dinner-Dance. A festive mood prevailed despite the knowledge that friendships formed over the last four years would now, in many cases, be severed. We thank God for memories of which there were many that evening. We shall treasure them always.

TO THE 1969 GRADUATING CLASS
LEICESTER HIGH SCHOOL

This is a day when congratulations are in order not only to the graduates but to the parents, teachers, and administrators whose efforts have helped to make this achievement possible. I extend my heartiest congratulations to all of you.

At a time when there is much talk about the differences between the generations, I think it is useful to remark upon a similarity between your graduating class of 1969 and my graduating class of 1930.

Your high school years have been historic ones. When you entered high school, man was making his elementary steps into space. In your senior year, three brave Americans journeyed around the moon. When I graduated from high school, only three years had passed since a man flew for the first time across the Atlantic Ocean. Despite the obvious difference in years, we have this in common: we all know what it is to be young at the start of an age of adventure.

You will discover, as I did, that each person must make his own exploration of the world, make his own discoveries, shape his own triumphs, endure his own tragedies. Each of us is an explorer of himself, of history, of knowledge, of the intricate and beautiful and wonderful varieties of experience.

Each of you will make a different kind of exploration, some in continued formal education, some in industry or business or agriculture. Whatever your choice, learn. Learn all you can about yourself and the world.

Your final year in high school was the beginning of an age of adventure, an age you will help to shape. You have my highest hopes and best wishes.

Richard Nixon

One of our time-tested classmates, Pam (Rocky) Colarusso, a Gibraltar in personality and character, left us in senior year. But true to her word, she returned to share with us the joy of Commencement.

Graduation, more so than any other high school event, brings out the myriad moods of the students who are about to receive their diplomas. Analyze this picture and you will capture stoicism (Joe O'Connell), gladness (Sue Williams), and a tint of sadness (Fern Cooper).

Voted Best All-Around Girl and Boy were Shirl Irish and Cliffy Smith. Of course, the two who took credit for molding them so magnificently were Bruce Smith and Jim Coughlin. Naturally, Bruce asked for a recount of the faculty ballots, demanding No. 1 recognition for being the first man ever to make an automobile fly.

IN SPECIAL APPRECIATION TO THE FOLLOWING

Mr. Skelley for providing us with the time to take some 700-odd candid and group pictures.

Mr. Bill Rowan of the Taylor Publishing Company for his ingenious pictorial layouts.

Mr. Jack Duckworth and the entire Loring Studio Staff for serving us so well for the 14th straight year.
